

Governance Training for Charities

CIOs or CLGs - which form for your organisation?

Charitable incorporated organisation (CIO) or charitable company limited by guarantee (CLG)? The Government proposes to introduce the long-awaited CIO form this year!

But will you need, or want, to convert your charity to this new form, or set up a new charity as a CIO? Should you incorporate as a CIO or a CLG? What are the benefits of incorporation?

In a 2 hour seminar in Oxford charity lawyers Rosie Parr and Tessa Hennessy will guide you through the CIO form and deal with your questions on CIOs and CLGs

Date: Wednesday 30th March 2011

Time: 10am - 12noon; registration, tea/coffee from 9.30am

Place: Restore, Training Room, Manzil Way, Cowley Road, Oxford, OX4 1YH

Cost: £15 per delegate

Speakers: Rosie Parr, Principal Solicitor, Lancaster Parr

www.lancasterparr.co.uk

Tessa Hennessy, Principal Solicitor, Tessa Hennessy Solicitor

www.tessahennessy.co.uk

Who should attend: Trustees, CEOs, senior managers of existing or new charities

Contact for information or bookings:

Tessa Hennessy

Tel. 01865 723727

email: info@tessahennessy.co.uk